By The Atlanta Times.

ATLANTA, (Ga.), Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—There is great excitement at Mariaville, Ga., over the murder of Joseph Gibson, a prominent citizen, who was killed Saturday night. Gibson's body was found a mile from town, near the house of a man named

M. L. Ammons, who has been studying for the ministry. Gibson, it seems, saw Ammons beating his wife, and remonstrated with him.

Ammons fled during the night, and is suspected of the murder. Gibson's throat was cut to the carotid. Lynching parties have been formed to hunt for Ammons.

A VOTE FOR POND IS A VOTE FOR BUCKLEY.
 The Democratic stinkpot campaign has proved a miserable failure.

POND IS A LIVING EXAMPLE OF THE MAN WHO WAS "BOILED WITH HIS OWN PETARD."

POND MAY MEAN WELL ENOUGH, BUT, AS GOVERNOR, HE WOULD HAVE TO RECKON WITH HIS BOSS.

MARKHAM'S election will mean re-enfranchisement and careful government in the interest of the people.

THE criminal extravagance of the last session should be rebuked by the election of a straight Republican Legislature.

THE passage of the McKinley Bill has entitled the Republican party to the enthusiastic support of all patriotic Americans at this election.

BUCKLEY'S great fight in San Francisco for the Assessor and Sheriff. That is what the Democrats are especially fighting for in this county.

LET us have a Republican administration in the State this year from top to bottom, then the Republicans will be responsible for what is done.

RESPECTABLE Democrats in the northern part of the State have determined to kill and bury Boss Buckley, politically, this year. Republicans should help them.

MALE OR FEMALE PRINCIPALS.

There is always considerable discussion among educators and the general public as to the relative advantages of male and female principals in our public schools. Those who argue in favor of the former say that, while it is undeniable that women as teachers are hard-working, patient and conscientious, there are certain positions which men are more fitted to occupy than women and among these is the management of big American boys. The American youth is chock-full of vitality, which is sometimes misdirected, and the control of unruly boys in their teens is a duty that should not, they say, be imposed upon women, however plucky they may be in their willingness to undertake it.

That this view of the case is largely recognized throughout the country may be seen by the following extracts from reports of superintendents of some of the leading schools of the United States, showing the sex of the principals of grammar schools in each city:

	Male.	Female.
New Haven	8	2
Cleveland	7	3
Davenport	7	3
Houston	15	1
Newark	15	0
Fall River	2	5
Minneapolis	4	23
Portland, Me.	3	4
Chicago	40	14
St. Louis	35	23
San Francisco	11	8

In each case reasons are given for the preference of one sex or the other. The Davenport superintendent credits men with greater executive ability and the management of both teachers and pupils on a broader scale. He considers that every school with grammar-grade boys should have a male principal. In Newark, where only men are employed as principals in the grammar schools, the report claims an advantage in securing greater permanency from professional men who make teaching their life work. The Kansas City superintendent claims that, while women are prompt and conscientious, they are much more liable to narrow the instruction in the upper grades, because they know little of the outside world. In Fall River, Minneapolis and Cleveland, where more women are employed than men, the reason given, in each case, is that their salaries are less than for first-class men.

From a recent United States Education report it is gathered that in 615 public secondary schools, supported wholly or partly by public funds, there were 472 male and 43 female teachers. The Pacific School Journal this year reported as principals of high school and grammar school courses on the Pacific Coast a proportion of about five-sixths male and one-sixth female teachers.

The subject is an interesting and important one, which advocates of both sides of the question can afford to discuss on its merits. Whatever may be decided as to principals in the higher grades, there is no doubt that women will continue—as they should—to fill a large and important place in the American educational system—a place which they have shown themselves eminently fitted to fill.

A SILLY DISCUSSION.

The Democrats appear determined to force the discussion as to the Governorship into the narrow issue of whether one or the other candidate—or both—has or has not employed Chinamen.

This is a low and unworthy phase of discussion to follow in considering the choice of a governor for a great commonwealth. It is puerile and illogical in the extreme.

There is scarcely a horticulturalist in the State—Democratic or Republican—hiring help who does not at some time have Chinamen in his employ. There are few California canneries which are run entirely without Chinese help.

How many Democrats are there in the State of California who never buy Chinese-made cigars, or shoes, or underclothing, or Chinese-raised vegetables, or get their clothes washed in a Chinese laundry?

Whether or not Col. Markham or Mr. Pond do or have employed Chinamen, has certainly little to do with the question of their fitness for the office of Governor.

But the Democrats won't have it so. They are determined to fight it out on this plane, and the Republicans have no alternative than to join issue with them. This they can most readily and effectively do.

While denigrating the ignominious character of the fight, we have every advantage in it, pictorially and otherwise. What are the facts?

Col. Markham, while superintending of his mines, employed no Chinamen, but paid white men good wages. This has been sworn to by reputable men. On the other hand, Mr. Pond is at present employing nearly 300 Chinamen. This the Democrats cannot deny.

There it is, then. If the Democrats will force the issue on this absurd Chinese employment question, let them have it. Markham never employed Chinamen; Pond is a wholesale employer of them and a San Francisco Chinaman has named one of his children after him.

COMMISSIONER MORGAN, of the Indian Bureau, in his annual report, a synopsis of which is telegraphed from Washington this morning, takes an encouraging view of the Indian outlook. He says that it has become the settled policy of the Government to break up reservation and tribal relations and settle the Indians upon their own homesteads. This is the right method and the one which we have constantly advocated. Let Mr. Morgan commence with the San Carlos reservation, and either Arizona or New Mexico, when they obtain Statehood, will make him their first elected Governor by acclamation.

the race for the nomination, for which nomination Mr. Morrow had so many warm and steadfast backers, who are now, like their former leader, loyal Markham men.

ALL agree that public parks are of undoubted value to a city, both as breathing-places for the citizens and points of attraction for visitors. To show forth the beauties of our climate and soil we cannot have too many. They are object lessons for our Eastern visitors that will do more toward teaching them the desirability of living here than anything else we can do. Why, then, do we maintain the unsightly nuisance that at present exists at reservoir No. 4. Here a park could be made at little cost that would, like any other thing of beauty, be a joy forever. Will not some live member of the Council take up the matter and push it to completion. Thirty or forty acres is all that is needed and land is cheap there now. Let us have the old reservoir made into a lake and the surrounding pasture turned into a flower garden, so that when the Pasadena Boulevard is opened for traffic all may be tempted to stop at this beauty spot.

THE San Francisco Examiner of the 24th published a yarn from Pasadena concerning what Markham told a man when I was coming home to Pasadena by stage. Riding from Los Angeles to Pasadena, about a year ago, by stage! That ought to settle it. If anything further was needed to cast discredit on the article it will be found in our Pasadena columns today, where another of the men mentioned in the dispatch flatly denies what is attributed to him. The Democrats are getting desperate.

It is said that there is a very interesting story connected with the suit which has been brought by the Alaska Commercial Company against the North American Commercial Company. It is nominally to recover $100,000, the value of 4000 sealskins recently discharged by the cutter Rush. The suit grows out of a very mixed up state of affairs between the Treasury Department, the Alaska Company and the North American Commercial Company.

Col. MARKHAM is expected home in Southern California today, after his long and arduous trip. He will speak in San Bernardino, San Diego and Santa Ana, and in this city on Saturday. Let us see to it that he receives a handsome and hearty reception in Los Angeles. We cannot afford to do less than other cities where Markham is a stranger. We ought to do much more.

FROM Russia comes the report that dissatisfaction is rapidly growing throughout the country. Also that a party of 300 Poles, trying to get into Russian territory, were fired on by Russian troops and six men, two women and one child killed. Revolution cannot be long stayed off in a country where such happenings are of almost daily occurrence.

The suggestion has been made at Redlands to utilize the water in Mill Creek Canyon to light up the whole valley with electricity. It seems to be a good idea. Could not Los Angeles get some cheap power out of the river water—at least for part of the year?

AUSTRALIA sent to this country last year $2,000,000 in English sovereigns, which represents the balance of trade in favor of the United States. It is pleasing to know that there is at least one country that we sell more to than we buy of. Under the new tariff there will be more.

We are glad to learn that an impression which has got abroad to the effect that the rebuilding of the Second-street cable railroad has been abandoned is false. Work on the road is to be pushed rapidly.

As we anticipated would be the case, Judge Ross yesterday revoked the appointment of C. H. Boyce as one of the Federal Supervisors of election. The appointment ought never to have been made.

THANKS to the McKinley Bill, Americans will henceforth pay 2 cents a pound less for their sugar. This will greatly help the canning business on the Pacific Coast.

Army Affairs in the Department of Columbia.

Gen. Gibbon Reports the Indians Quiet in the Northwest.

Grover Cleveland Appears Before the Bar of the Supreme Court.

A Large Crowd Gathered to Listen to the Ex-President—The Election Law Once More Before the Court.

By Telegram to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.] The Secretary of War has received the annual report of Brig.-Gen. John Gibbon, commanding the Department of the Columbia. He reports the Indians of the extreme Northwest perfectly peaceful. He thinks that they will remain so indefinitely "unless goaded to desperation by the constant encroachments of whites and their acts of injustice."

He says in regard to the court-martial: "Supposed irregularities in court-martial proceedings recently have given rise to a good deal of comment throughout the country, and a proposition has been made to take from the department commanders the power to order general courts-martial and vest it only in division commanders. I am of the opinion that this would be a great mistake. It would not be in furtherance of the administration of justice and would simply add one more to the disadvantages of the division of the organization."

He recommends, however, certain improvements in the administration of military justice as follows: To authorize the secretary by law to establish a schedule of punishments for certain well-defined offenses, to which courts should conform in sentences; by requiring a military court of appeal, whose duties should be similar to corresponding civil courts.

Gen. Gibbon reports the troops in his department in good condition as regards discipline, and gives it as his opinion that the various measures taken to decrease the number of desertions in the army will result beneficially.

"No steps," he says, "will produce better results than the plan to get better material by enlisting recruits in the rural districts rather than crowded cities."

He reports the cantenies in his department in a satisfactory condition, and says that the system is not only better than that of trade shops but enlisted men are beginning to realize some of its benefits. He recommends that the War Department charter a seaway vessel for the transportation of stores across the mouth of the Columbia River and Baker's Bay, as was done until recently; when the contract for that service was disapproved. Since the stoppage of the steamer the garrison at Fort Canby has been out of food on ordinary supply.

EXECUTION BY ELECTRICITY.

An Attempt to Overturn the Law in the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.] The first motion to secure a final action from the Supreme Court of the United States on the question of the constitutionality of the New York Electrical Execution Law, was made in the Supreme Court today. It was moved that the case be advanced and set for speedy hearing. The point raised is that the Kemmerly execution demonstrated that killing by electricity was a cruel and unusual punishment, and as such prohibited by the Constitution of the United States.

After counsel had made the motion, Chief Justice Fuller asked: "Is there any distinction between this case and the case of Kemmerly?" Daniel O'Callahan, the counsel who made the motion, responded: "Yes, sir; this distinction, that the carrying out of the sentence in the Kemmerly case was not scientifically successful, and petitioner hopes that electricity will be decided to be not the proper mode." The Chief Justice will take the papers.

THE SUPREME TRIBUNAL.

Ex-President Cleveland Argues a Case Before the Bar.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.] In the Supreme Court today the following business was transacted: No. 808 R. R. Rooper, plaintiff in error, vs. the people of California; motion to advance denied. No. 1335, Pacific Express Company, plaintiff in error, vs. James K. McDowell; motion to advance pursuant to 32d rule submitted in behalf of counsel.

Ex-President Cleveland made an argument as associate counsel for Jas. K. McDowell. He is known in the New Orleans drainage case. The court room was filled with members of the bar and the general public, while an impatient crowd waited outside for an opportunity to enter. When Mr. Cleveland entered he was heartily greeted by ex-Atty.-Gen. Garland and ex-Secretary Bayard, while Justice Lamar bowed from the bench to which he had been appointed by the lawyer who now argued before him. Mr. Cleveland read from a printed brief, and although the case was very technical, he held the interest and attention of every member of the court.

Seventh-Day Baptists. CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The Seventh-day Baptist Council today took definite action on the reports of standing committees. The most important conclusion reached had reference to the denominational policy and educational work. The council voted to remove menace to the harmony of the denomination by the unification and merging together of the church and mission, tract and educational societies, and it was also resolved to raise the standard of scholarship in the denominational colleges at Alfred, N. Y., Milton, Wis., Albion, Wis., and Salem, W. Va.

HALSTEAD SELLS HIS PAPER.

Alger and Clarkson Supposed to Be Interested.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.] It is announced upon reliable authority that Murat Halstead, who owned a controlling interest in the Commercial Gazette, has sold to a broker a portion of his holding. Whether the sale is coupled with a contract to give the purchasers control by proxy of his remaining shares, so as to give them unrestricted control of the paper is not known, but it is probable that the sale will result in Halstead's remaining in the East until the names of the purchasers from the brokers are made known. There is much speculation on that point. Gen. Alger and J. S. Clarkson have been guessed by some as the men. The transfer of stock and reorganization, if any, will be done within thirty days.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Murat Halstead was seen this afternoon by an Associated Press reporter in regard to the statement that he had sold a portion, and maybe the whole, of his stock in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. Halstead said that he had agreed to sell a portion of his stock, and did not see why there should be a commotion about it. "There is no deep political scheme behind the matter, nothing revolutionary or in any sense remarkable," he said. "The rumor that I am connected with the transaction, the names of two distinguished politicians is without any foundation."

AT BAKERSFIELD.

COL. MARKHAM ROYALLY RECEIVED IN KERN.

Cannon and Bonfires Bid Him Welcome to the Town—A Reception at the Hotel, Drives, a Parade and Speeches.

By Telegram to The Times.

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.] Col. H. H. Markham and Hon. J. C. Campbell addressed a large meeting here tonight. Bonfires illuminated the town and cannon boomed during the evening. Col. Markham was driven around the country this morning, and this afternoon he held a reception at the hotel. This evening he was escorted to the hall by a committee of citizens and a band. He addressed the audience about forty minutes.

A DEMONSTRATION OVER STANFORD. SACRAMENTO, Oct. 27.—There was a big meeting of mechanics employed in the railroad shops, and citizens tonight, to make arrangements for a popular demonstration Thursday night in honor of Senator Stanford.

The indications are that it will be an immense affair. The workmen will parade, and the affair is intended to be strictly non-partisan, so far as the parade is concerned.

OPERATORS STRIKE.

All of the Telegraph Keys in St. Paul Leave Ticking.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.] All of the operators, thirty-seven in number, in the Western Union Telegraph Company's office in this city struck at 8 o'clock tonight, and all of the company's wires into the city are idle. The walkout is on account of the discharge by the company, a few days ago, of six operators supposed to belong to the brotherhood. The discharged men called on Superintendent McChesney at his home this afternoon, to try and effect an agreement, but were not recognized, and the strike is the result.

The telegraph company sent at once for the day force to take the night men's place, but the strikers met them on the street and kept most of them from going to work. A majority of the 150 operators employed by the Western Union in the city are members of the Brotherhood, and they asserted that all of the day men belonging to the organization will go out in the morning. The men here think that the Western Union operators in Chicago and Omaha will also strike tomorrow.

He induced Hemken to come to New York and open a fancy dry goods store with branches in Chicago and one in Montreal. He claims that through some hocus pocus Slayton has got away with the business, leaving him (Hemken) in the cold.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 27.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] A meeting of Liberals was held here today, at which Gladstone delivered an address. He said that the Liberal party was prepared to wait for an expression of the country's opinion regarding Home Rule before commencing a premature scheme. He urged the people to closely watch the naval and military expenditures, which, he declared, had gone beyond the bounds of prudence and propriety.

Referring to the foreign policy of the government Gladstone blamed Salisbury for sending an accredited envoy to the Vatican. The sending of Simons to consult with the Pope regarding the rights of the Catholic church in Malta came dangerously near to supporting papal claims to clerical dominion over a part of Italy.

Continuing Gladstone said that the accounts of internal oppression in Russia, raised feelings akin to abhorrence, and he trusted that the world would soon be favored by the overthrow of the Czar.

Regarding Armenia and the misrule of the Porte, he said that the long series of outrages committed by the Turks on Christians might eventually seal the doom of the once great Turkish empire.

Referring to home politics, Gladstone said that there were seven test questions, apart from that of home rule for Ireland, namely: Temperance, the eight-hour day, the disestablishment of the Scotch church, the disestablishment of the Welsh church, woman suffrage, home rule for Scotland and allotments; but he cautioned the Liberal party against dividing one large army into seven small ones by declining to support a candidate who does not accept a particular test.

Gladstone praised Lord Salisbury's South African arrangement as the best that the circumstances permitted.

MRS. HOBBS' MURDER.

She Was Probably Killed by Her Husband's Paragon.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] It is probable that the police will succeed in clearing away the mystery surrounding the murder of Mrs. Hobbs, whose body was found Friday night at South Hampstead. Mrs. Nellie Piercy, whom Mrs. Hobbs visited Friday, and whose house revealed traces of a desperate struggle, and who was consequently arrested, was arraigned in the police court today on a preliminary hearing. The husband of the murdered woman testified that he existed between himself and the prisoner. He had a latch key to her house, and frequently visited her. He thought that his wife did not know of his relations with Mrs. Piercy. Further examination of the kitchen at the Piercy residence reveals that a fierce struggle had taken place there. Attempts had been made to remove the blood stain on the floor and about the room by the use of paraffine.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

NEW STOCK ARRIVING DAILY.

Eastern Wholesale Warehouses Ransacked for the Best and Fresh-est Novelties—Don't Fail to Read Our List.

PEOPLE'S STORE, Tuesday, Oct. 28.

KIND FRIENDS: We make our bow to you today under the old flag of Right Goods at Proper Prices. The rush and crush of carload upon carload of new things, the attendant work of checking off the invoices and getting them into stock has been almost a greater task than we are equal to, and naturally some particular branch of the business has had to languish. We are sorry to admit it, but such has been the case. "SPECIAL SALES"—The good old magnetic watchery of an appreciative public have of necessity been laid aside, but we are now at it again, and at it in real earnest. You never saw such bargains as we're going to give. Our general manager, M. A. Hamburger, has just returned from the Eastern markets, where he has been for several months scouring the attics and basements for bargains. He would look at nothing else; he would buy nothing else; he sent us nothing else, and he is here to offer you nothing else. Don't fail to read our list today; don't fail to read it every day. We've got our "war paint" on, and if ever goods were slaughtered before we will show you the difference between what we're offering and the slaughtering we're in for this time. Look out for us! We're coming like a cyclone. Get in and take advantage of the downpour every time you can. Each day we'll give you a different list, and the values will be such as were never heard of before. We've had a little rest; we needed it, as we were rushed as hard as mortal man could be. We are on deck again now, knife in hand, and will wield it in every direction where prices are not to our liking. Bring your biggest net purses and your biggest baskets, for things were never so tempting as you'll find them now. Read the list; it's only a starter, though.

Our Drug Department.

We carry nothing but the best and genuine articles. We offer the public a guarantee, and should it fail in any instance we represent it. We carry no out-of-the-way lines which the public do not wish, but just such as is wanted at from 15 to 35% per cent. less than the lowest quotations ever offered by any drug house. We are in the drug business and mean to stay. We were the first to give you right goods at proper prices, and when even a lower quotation is made to us our patrons get the benefit. A few items have been lowered. Down went the price and we offer the list for inspection in comparison with any:
